Camie-Campbell Releases Earth-Friendly Line of Lubricants

All five of Tom's Secret Formula products are biodegradable

St. Louis (June 2008) – Camie-Campbell announced the release of Tom's Secret Formula, a new line of earth-friendly lubricants. The line includes five biodegradable products – B-404 All-Purpose Lubricant, Garage Door Lubricant, Cutting Oil, High Performance Pipe Thread Lubricant and Truckers' Lubricant.

“We are excited about the inclusion of the Tom's Secret Formula in the Camie-Campbell family of superior products,” said Tom Shelby, CEO of Camie-Campbell. “These products provide an earth-friendly, biodegradable lubricants for the environmentally-conscious customer.”

All Tom's Secret Formula products are formulated with optimized USA-grown vegetable oils and selective additives. The lubricants, which contain no chlorine or regulated toxins, are safe for all metals and do not evaporate, providing long-lasting lubrication in addition to industry specific-benefits.

“In testing and industry trial applications, each of the Tom's Secret Formula products has out-performed petroleum-based lubricants,” Shelby said. “We're proud to offer quality lubrication alternatives to our customers.”

For more than 50 years, Camie-Campbell has provided the lubrication industry with the highest quality of products at a value-driven cost.
